

“But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel.

Put yourself in their 1st century sandals for a moment. The disciples on Emmaus said, “and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him. “But we WERE hoping (past tense) that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened (Luke 24:20-21). Clearly, this turn of events did not turn out as they expected. They had not understood that Christ needed to suffer, die and raise again. So, from their limited understanding at that time, it looked like an unmitigated disaster. Purely from a natural human perspective, Jesus being crucified and dying on the cross LOOKED like a failure. They were looking at the seen and not at the unseen. For the things that are seen are temporal, but the things that are not seen are eternal. When Christ died on the Cross it was not a failure but total, absolute victory! Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it. This is a great encouragement for us. Our lives may look in the eyes of others as a total failure, a disappointment, a tragedy. But not with God. It's like the poem, The Weaver. We see the backside of the tapestry, with all it's messy knots and tangled threads and we can't make sense of it, whereas God sees the beautiful artwork that is being created out of our lives, which will be revealed to us at a time of His choosing. For we are His workmanship created in Christ...

The Cost Of His Presence

What we've known as the Tabernacle was called the 'Mishkan'. It was the very first house of God; the dwelling place of God's glory; the place of Heaven's dwelling. And yet it wasn't built of heavenly materials. It was built of earthly things. It was built from wheat the Hebrews gave. And they have from what they had; their jewelry, their cloth, their adornments, whatever they had. They gave of their lives. It wasn't the material that was holy - it was the fact that they gave it, they sacrificed it, and they surrendered it for God's holy purposes. And the glory of God indwelt it. So too, with your life. When you give to the purposes of God, your time, your money, your heart, your talents, your plans & ambitions, that which you give becomes holy. The Lord doesn't ask you for much . . . Just all. And we all have an all to give. Just give all of it, whatever you have, no matter what it is, the materials of your life - give them to God for His purposes, and they will become holy, and the glory of God will come down.
