

Chapters 9-12 Making sure it's God doing the changing.

There are 3 main sources of wisdom: Self (our natural senses) or Others
Worldly/demons
God

The goal of these combined sessions is to learn how we can rightly identify which source of wisdom is influencing or changing me. How can I be sure it is God who is working in me? The proof is in what it produces.

Chap. 9: SELF & OTHERS

I.Discuss Mark 7:21-23 in connection with Rom.7:18 and Jer.17:9,10a

---

---

---

A. God changes me when He changes my mind & heart.

1. Discuss what it means to "walk in the vanity of our minds" Eph.4:17 –

---

---

---

a. Prov.14:12a – _____
_____

b. 1 Cor.2:14 – _____
_____

c. Ps.139:23-24 – Prayer to ask God to guard us against being influenced by self.

B. Input from Others – Consider the source

Sharing can be a profitable source of wisdom if the wisdom shared is from a reliable source. Is the person sharing with us walking with God? Is what they're sharing based on an experience of their own faith and obedience to God, and in harmony with His word?

Discuss 1Pet.4:11a -

---

---

Discuss Ps.19:12-14 -

---

---